Bodegas La Geria

Lanzarote, Spain

Situated in the heart of Lanzarote's most iconic wine region, Bodegas La Geria sits amidst a landscape of surreal beauty where vines are planted in deep volcanic ash pits. This historic winery is world renowned for its Malvasía Volcánica, a wine that tastes of smoke, sea spray, and the indomitable spirit of the Canary Islands.

Manto Malvasía Volcánica Seco

White · NV · 750 ml · Malvasía Volcánica 100%

Appearance. Bright, with new-gold hues.

Nose. Passion fruit, mango and pineapple, jasmine and orange blossom, and fennel underlining a mineral, saline character.

Palate. Full-bodied and fresh, with integrated acidity and a long finish.

Winemaking. Hand-harvested on the volcanic slopes of Lanzarote, including century-old vines, and aged 2 months on lees.

Manto Rosado

Rosé · NV · 750 ml · Listán Negro 100%

Appearance. Raspberry colour with violet hues.

Nose. Strawberry, raspberry, blueberry, currant and rose petals.

Palate. Fresh, fruity and very easy to drink.

Winemaking. Hand-harvested Listán Negro from the volcanic slopes of Lanzarote, with 12 hours of skin contact.