Isla del Vino

Mallorca, Spain

A hidden gem in the heart of Mallorca's traditional wine country, Isla del Vino celebrates the artisanal spirit of the Balearics. This project focuses on small scale production and "Vins de la Terra," emphasizing the purity of the fruit and the unique limestone rich soils that give Mallorcan wines their distinct structure and warmth.

Casa Sabine Blanco Cuvée

White · 2023 · 750 ml · Prensal Blanc, Macabeo

Appearance. Light yellow to golden in the glass.

Nose. Seductive peach and rosehip.

Palate. Fine almond notes add complexity and depth. Balanced and harmonious.

Conclusion. An excellent match for white meat, fish and paella.

Winemaking. Not barrel-aged.

Sueño Sauvignon Blanc

White · 2023 · 750 ml · Sauvignon Blanc

Appearance. Lemon yellow.

Nose. Pink grapefruit, green bell pepper and a hint of green pineapple.

Palate. A noticeable residual sweetness gives a pleasant juiciness; grapefruit and red pepper with a touch of yellow curry.

Conclusion. Pairs well with Indian dishes and Pad Thai; cellar potential 2–3 years.

Winemaking. Not barrel-aged.

Rubaí Tinto

Red · NV · 750 ml · Manto Negro, Callet, Gorgollassa, Fogoneu

Appearance. Light ruby red.

Nose. Floral and vegetal notes of lilac.

Palate. Fresh, slender cherry fruit, light tannins for structure and a soft finish.

Conclusion. Good with grilled steak in summer or venison in winter.

Winemaking. Not barrel-aged.